

THE SPECIAL BOON

It was a bright morning. I was playing on my terrace.

Suddenly I saw a bird was trying to fly but could not. Then I went close, and realized that bird got hurt in its legs. So I holded the bird gently and gave it water, food, and a place to rest and applied borolin on the wound.

Suddenly the bird turned into a bright light & I was scared and curious that what is happening. From that bright light appeared Lord Krishna, he smiled and told "Aryaman you have a kind heart I am very happy that you cared about the bird".

But I was still in shock.

I asked "Are you the Real Lord Krishna?".

Krishna smiled and said, "Dear I want to gift you something tell me what do you want?"

Oh My God - Lord Krishna was asking for my wish that was unbelievable. I started thinking and thinking what could I ask?

I was a bit hesitant to ask for this but then I thought I should say "I told Krishna that I want to go to Jim Corbet National Park and want to meet Bear Grylls and Narendra Modi.

Krishna gave me a confused look and then suggested that no one would allow that way. Krishna told me that he would grant my wish but there's a condition. He can send me there but as an insect so that no one can recognize me and for 8 hours only.

I was so super happy to hear this. By hook or by crook I wanted to enjoy the wild life with the adventurous Bear Grylls and Modi ji.

I thanked Krishna and Krishna disappeared. I could not sleep that night in excitement and was waiting for the next day. My day with our PM and Bear Grylls.

Next morning to my surprise I found myself in the Jim Corbet National Park Yippppppeeeeeeeeeeeeeee..... Hurahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh..... my wish was going to be fulfilled and I saw myself in a new avatar the cockroach Hooohoooooo "I can fly". Also I could watch Modi ji Bear Grylls.

Now the adventure begins. I saw how Mr. Grylls guided Modi ji to make weapon with knife and tree branch and rope for self defence. Even I would try this.

Modi ji and Grylls was walking so fast I could not match their speed at time. Our PM is so strong and active at this age.

It was quite cold there. Both of them were enjoying their coffee sitting on the rock. but I could not enjoy the coffee with them ..... that was sad.

“Let’s not think about all these Aryaman” I told myself.

Oh wow....Mr.Grylls and Modiji is trying to make a boat. I never knew that with some simple things we can make a boat. I wish I could help them in this. I could only watch. You know Grylls is so funny he cracked such funny jokes even Modiji started laughing and me too. I hope they didn’t see my laughing.

The boat was quite big I was thinking where could I sit.

Uh...ouchh , Modi ji almost stepped on me, I cried loudly, but all in vein, who can hear a cockroach crying.

But sharing the seat in the boat in Jim Corbett national park is not a matter of joke. I was so happy we were crossing the river and was going to the other side of the park. Bear Grylls was pushing the boat.

He added that river was full of crocodiles, hearing this I shifted near to Modi ji Bear Grylls is so brave and hard working. Finally we reached to the other side of park.

Grylls and Modi ji decided to have food and rest.

It started raining. I sat on the leaf and started thinking what would I ask to Modi ji and Grylls if by chance I could talk to them.

Suddenly it got dark. I looked around myself.... wait a second. Where am I? did I fall in the river or did I get into the hole. Right now I was outside.

Suddenly I heard the noise this was Bear Grylls talking. What is happening? He was talking about an insect that he ate. Oh my God, that was me oh no..... he was talking about me how tasty I was and how nutritious I am. "I am not an insect, I am Human, I am Aryaman".

Bear Grylls... Mr. Grylls I shouted, please help me to come out. "Can you hear me?" I cried and but no one could hear me. I was scared and worried how would I go home? Mumma must be worried.

I started, jumping, shouting, knocking, tickling.

But Bear Grylls could not realize. I was tired and sad and tensed and sat at a corner.

I thought for a while and an idea came in my mind. I started climbing from the stomach I reached to the heart and throat and finally in the nostrils and I started tickling him in his nostrils and Mr. Grylls sneezed loudly..... "achoooooooooooo....." And finally I got out of his stomach. What a relief. I was cleaning myself and suddenly I turned into a human being again as Krishna told me it was for 8 hours.

This time Bear Grylls and Modi ji was shocked to see me there.

Then I told them the entire incident and they laughed a lot.

They sent me back to home. I told the entire story to mom. She was surprised to hear this and she asked whether the cockroach would be seen during the telecast.....

I started laughing.

“thank you” Krishna for the boon.
